

The George Markey Memorial Organ Scholarship
sponsored by
The Metropolitan New Jersey Chapter
of
The American Guild of Organists

Eligibility: A Freshmen or Sophomore organ or sacred music major at the college/university level who either lives or studies in AGO Region II

Requirements: Completed application (attached)
CD of required pieces
Brief biographical essay

Award: $1,500

Application Deadline: Postmarked by March 15th, 2008
Scholarship Awarded: May 15th, 2008

For further information, please contact: Charles Banks at cbanks@stpaulswestfield.org or at 908-232-8506 extension 17.

Dr George Markey (1925-1999)

Dr George Markey was a graduate of The Curtis Institute and for many years Professor of Organ at Westminster Choir College. He was Director of The Guilman Organ School in New York City and also taught at The Peabody Conservatory. He was a beloved teacher and toured extensively as a concert organist.

The George Markey Memorial Organ Scholarship Application

Name

College Address

Phone Number

E-mail

Year in college

Organ Teacher

Literature Requirements:

Any prelude and fugue or fantasy and fugue by J.S. Bach other than the Little Preludes and Fugues

A piece from the Romantic organ repertoire

A contrasting piece from the Contemporary organ repertoire

Please list the pieces (with edition) played on your CD

Bach Work _____

Romantic Work _____

Contemporary Work _____

Please include a short biographical essay describing your background in music and career aspirations.

Please send this application, your recording and your biographical essay to:

Charles Banks

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

414 East Broad Street

Westfield, New Jersey 07090-2124

All applications should be postmarked on or before March 15th, 2008.

Winner will be notified on May 15th, 2008.